I Timothy 4:12

“Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in faith, in love, in life, in speech and in purity.”

Discussion for the younger kids:

This verse reminds me that even though I am young, I can still be a light for Christ no matter where I am or whom I am with. A lot of times it’s easy for me to think that because I’m young I can’t do anything. But when I read this verse, God reminds me that He can use me no matter how old I am.

For Further Discussion:

Lots of teenagers want to make a difference in the world, but they feel that they have to wait until they graduate from college and have a job. That’s a lie. God can use anyone He wants, and He wants to use teenagers. When I was in High School, God used me countless times to make a difference in the world, and sometimes I saw the fruit of my labor and sometimes I did not. But I do know that even though I’m young in the world’s eyes, God will always use me to make a difference in the world because I am the right age for His plan.
