

Christina Horsley

Staff In Training (SIT)

Isaiah 43:4-5

"Since you are precious and honored in my sight, and because I love you, I will give men in exchange for you and people in exchange for your life. Do not be afraid for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east, and gather you from the west."

Discussion for the Younger Kids:

Do you realize how much God Loves you? Ask your parents how much they love you? As loved as you are by them, God loves you even more than they do, even more than you love them!

For Further Discussion:

In this verse God is reassuring us of his love for us. He also lets us know that he does see us, not only that, but we are precious and honored in his sight. He sees us as his children and no matter what he will always love us. He lets us know that he is always with us and we don't have to be afraid, when rough times come He will look out for us and come when the time is right. God may be silent for awhile but he is always there and will speak up in our lives when necessary. Because He loves us he will come and have us and has saved us. In the times when we feel God isn't there we just need to remember that He does see us and will come and save us so there is no need to be afraid.

If you would like to ask Christina more about her devotional, you can send an email to her at camp.