

Jenna Gordon

Counselor

Jeremiah 17:7-8

“But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.”

Discussion for the younger kids:

During my life I have learned that it is important to trust God in everything I do. He will always remain faithful to me, and I have no need to be afraid of anything that happens because he is in control of it all. When I put my trust in anything other than God it most often lets me down, and I am disappointed. However, when I place all of my confidence and trust in him, I know I am fully cared for and that he will never disappoint me.

For Further Discussion:

I have realized the importance of putting my full trust in God and relinquishing the need I feel to have control over myself. He determines the circumstances that are brought upon me, and I have no need to fear or worry about anything because I know that in the end his perfect plan will be carried out. It is only during the times of trust that he is able to give me a complete sense of peace. Everything I encounter in life must go through his hands first. No matter what is brought upon me, what I may be deprived of or what may be taken away from me, I know one thing: I will see the Lord's will fulfilled in my life and will be blessed by it as long as my full confidence remains in him and not myself.

If you would like to ask Jenna more about her devotional, you can send an email to her at camp.