

Stephanie Stutzman

Counselor

Psalm 37:3-8

"Trust in the LORD, and do good;
Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.
Delight yourself also in the LORD,
And He shall give you the desires of your heart.
Commit your way to the LORD,
Trust also in Him,
And He shall bring it to pass.
He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,
And your justice as the noonday.
Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him...
Do not fret—it only causes harm."

Discussion for the Younger Kids:

Who do you trust the most? Do you trust your Dad when he tells you to jump into his arms in the pool? Do you trust your Mom when she says "Try this vegetable, you will like it"? Two times in this Psalm it says to Trust God. Do you find it harder to trust Him than your parents? Talk to your parents about that, then talk to God too!

For Further Discussion:

There are seasons of our lives when we can't see what's ahead. We might have no idea what the next step is going to be or where we're going to land, but when we trust that God has it all under control, we can walk forward in faith that He will take care of everything we do. We each have dreams and plans that we desire to come true. The key is to commit all of these to the Lord's care and allow yourself to loosen your grip on them enough to be able to say, "Lord, I would love for these to come true, but if You desire something different for me, then that is what I want." I won't pretend that this is easy, but when we humble ourselves before the Lord and submit our desires to Him, He is faithful to bless us with what will please our hearts.

If you would like to ask Stephanie more about her devotional, you can send an email to her at camp.